

Craft Your Irresistible Offer

How to Stand Out, Attract Clients, and Close More Deals by Being Different

Objectives

- Define who your ideal client/avatar is
- Build a unique offer that stands out from all other agents
- Complete your Offer & Avatar worksheets
- Learn how to package this into a “video sales letter” aka your 24/7 digital salesperson that works while you sleep

What Is An Offer (And Why Most Agents Don't Have One)?

- A real estate offer isn't just “I help you buy/sell.”
- It's what makes you different from other agents...before the client ever calls you.
- Example: “I help young families find homes with in-law suites under market value” or “I offer a moving-cost credit to first-time buyers”

Your Avatar: Who You're Talking To

Before we build the offer, we define who it's for. In the avatar worksheet, you'll:

- Describe your favorite type of client
- Uncover their pain points
- Know what motivates them to take action

→ Please complete the avatar section of the worksheet attached before moving forward

Offer Creation Framework

- Ask yourself: “what is the #1 result I can help someone get in real estate - and how do I do it differently than others?”

- Use this Offer Formula:
 - I help {type of client} get {desirable result} without {common frustration} by using {your unique method/hook}
- Examples
 - “I help downsizing seniors sell their homes in 14 days without endless showings by using our Private Buyer Pool system.”
 - “I help first-time buyers own a home with no down payment using a 3-step lender-approved strategy.”

→ Please complete the offer section of the worksheet attached before moving forward

Packaging Your Offer

- We'll be using the worksheets above in the next module to create your Video Sales Letter
- You don't need a fancy studio for this. You'll just need:
 - A simple video (screen recording)
 - Your clear offer
 - A real example or story
 - A call-to-action: “Click to book a free strategy call”
- This video will work for you 24/7 on social media, ads, emails etc.
- More on this later

Retargeting + The Power of Repetition

- We'll cover this later down the line however here's what you need to know for now:
 - Once your Video Sales Letter is created, it can be shown to leads again and again (even while you sleep)
 - This makes you unforgettable and builds trust
 - Clients book in already knowing what you do and why they want to work with you
